preamvada babbar	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	5	1	1	NA	Our teacher has not covered any part of the syllabus or provided academic guidance, leaving us unclear about the subject, extra research work is challenging for students from non-psychology backgrounds. In proper teaching, students are expected to speak and present topics, but this has caused confusion and anxiety about upcoming assignments and exams. Additionally, the class focuses on non-academic discussions like movies, topics or TV shows like 'big boss', and this sometimes makes personal and application-related comments, which makes students uncomfortable. There has also been observation of students speaking negatively to other students, creating a negative atmosphere among classmates. I am claiming close communication with staff, which discourages providing feedback.

She pushes students to think like experts, encouraging them to research deeply and question things. Above all, this teacher believes in doing the work—she focuses on hands-on practical projects over just listening to lectures, which prepares students directly for their professional lives.
